LED line® controller VARIANTE RF WIFI TUYA 0-10V DIM

VARIANTE DIM Controller is a device used for controlling single-colour LED Strips. The controller supports the connection of 12 V strips with 192 W of total output or 24 V strips with 384 W of total output. In order to connect LED Strips with higher output, a suitable signal amplifier should be used.

The controller can be controlled by a dedicated VARIANTE radio remote control, with a range of 20 m, or from any place in the world through WIFI, using TUYA Smart Device Management System and free SmartLife app, designed for home automation device control.

Thanks to the controller grouping function, VARIANTE DIM can be controlled with several controllers in a given group at the same time, assigned to different zones.

Maximum controller load is 4 A per channel (16 A for all channels). Controller's allowable operating temperature is between -20°C and 60°C.
